

12th October 2026

Disability Support Committee

The Disability Support Committee of Vishnu Dental College has been constituted with the following members.

| S. No | Name of the Member                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Designation in the Committee              |
|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| 1)    | Dr. G. KartheekAssociate Professor, Oral Pathology                                                                                                                                                                                | Chairperson                               |
| 2)    | Dr. Chaitanya Ram.Reader, Public Health DentistryDr. Sahithi Praba.Senior Lecturer, Oral PathologyDr. N. Vikas Kumar.Senior Lecturer, Oral PathologyDr. K. Kiriti Sai Reddy.Senior Lecturer, Orthodontics | Members                                   |
| 3)    | Dr. V. DeepikaMr. I. Kiran Kumar                                                                                                                                                                                                  | College Medical OfficerMale Nurse     |
| 4)    | Mrs. RadhaMr. Srinivas                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Girls Hostel WardenBoys Hostel Warden |
| 5)    | Mr. Tarun - InternMr. R. Nikhil – IV BDSMr. D. Kodandarama – III BDS                                                                                                                                                          | Student Representatives                   |

These members look after the well-being and any other issues pertaining to disability of students, staff, parents, and patients who visit Vishnu Dental College.

A. V. Ram R. S. S.
PRINCIPAL 12.10.26